ASPR TRACIE Speaker Series
Brief Speaker Biographies

Medical Reserve Corps Voices from the Field Speaker Series

REVIVE! Virginia's Opioid Overdose and Naloxone Education Program

Virginia Department of Behavioral Health Developmental Services

Larry Turner is a Substance Use Education specialist with over 22 years of experience working within the criminal justice system and community systems. He has addressed various populations experiencing mental health crisis and substance use disorders impacting total life issues. He serves as a liaison with state and local court systems providing subject matter expertise in cases involving complex issues resulting in treatment interventions and recommendations. He has served on various committees at the local CSB and military training centers to address chemical dependency issues.

Virginia Department of Health

Adreania Tolliver is the State Medical Reserve Corps (MRC) Coordinator for the Virginia Department of Health, leading a statewide network of over 21,000 medical and non-medical volunteers. Adreania has worked with the Office of Emergency Preparedness for over 11 years, and during emergencies and disasters, she staffs ESF8 for the Virginia State EOC. She has over 31 years of healthcare experience and 27 years of public service, including service in two war campaigns as a U.S. Air Force veteran, Medic/EMT Instructor for the 383rd Training Squadron, and 48 Loadmaster on aeromedical evacuation missions. Adreania holds a doctorate, two master's degrees, and several associate degrees. She is also a graduate of the Community College of the Air Force as a Certified Master Trainer and a Maxwell Leadership Trainer and Coach.

Alyssa Lewis is the Richmond and Henrico Local Health Emergency Coordinator. She has been the Emergency Coordinator for almost 1 year. Prior to her new role, she served as the MRC Unit Coordinator for Greater Richmond, which covers Chickahominy, Henrico, and Richmond Health Districts for over 8 years.

Kate Bausman, CVA is the Eastern Region MRC Coordinator for Virginia. She was previously the Richmond City Unit Coordinator and has been a Master Trainer for the REVIVE! Program through the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services since 2018.